Your data, privacy and the Law

How we use your medical records

- Murrayfield Medical Practice handles medical records according to the laws on data protection and confidentiality
- We share medical records with health professionals who are involved in providing you with care and treatment. This is on a need to know basis and event by event
- Some of your data is automatically copied to the Emergency Care Summary (ECS)
- We may share some of your data with local out of hours / urgent or emergency care service
- Data about you is used to manage national screening campaigns such as flu, cervical cytology and diabetes prevention
- Data about you, usually de-identified, is used to manage the NHS and make payments
- We share information when the law requires us to do, for instance when reporting certain illnesses or safeguarding vulnerable people
- Your data is used to check the quality of care provided by the NHS

For more information please ask at reception for a copy of our General Data Protection Regulation – Privacy Statement
